

Press Kit | County Line

Artist Information

Label: Self-released Genre: Country Hometown: Ashland, OH Influences: Eric Church, 70's pop/folk rock, New Country Sounds Like: Eric Church, Dustin Lynch

Bio

The band was originally founded in Ashland, Ohio.

The current members of the band are Joe Stimmell (vocal), Josh Wireman (drums), and Ben Schnell (bass).

County Line plays on stages around Ohio, from popular country venues like Thirsty Cowboy in Medina County to local County Fairs. The band has opened for LANCO, Josh Thompson, Jameson Rodgers, and more.

County Line is a modern country band with classic country/rock roots. County Line combines different genres for a unique experience. Their influences include Eric Church, 70's pop/folk rock, and old to new country.

Having already released multiple singles so far, be sure to follow where you like to hangout online and stay updated with their music. The newest single "Game Over" is out now.

Upcoming Shows

Since our shows update frequently, view these links to see upcoming live performances.

- Bandsintown
- Facebook

If you have any additional questions on upcoming events, please contact booking@countylineofficial.com

Music

You can enjoy all of our released songs on all your major streaming platforms.

Promo Images

For marketing and promotional purposes, you are able to download and use these high res images. NOTE: Only can be used by persons that have consent from us may use these images. Also, be aware that promotional images can change year. We ask that you look back on this link every year or when directed by booking.

Click here to view images

Contact Information

Email: booking@countylineofficial.com

Phone: 419-651-3052